

Dipley Mill Garden.

Picturesque C16th Mill straddles the river Whitewater at Dipley. Corn was ground here until 1921 when it was converted to a private house the present owner is Miss Rose McMonigall who has made 18 separate beautiful gardens with meandering streams

A Domesday Listed Building

On Friday 12th September a group of members had a private tour of Dipley Mill Gardens in Hartley Wintney.

We were welcomed by Rose McMonigall the garden designer who told us the history of the Mill, which is mentioned in the Domesday Book.

Rose then took us on a guided tour of the garden and explained the theme for each area.

Rose and her team of gardeners have transformed the gardens into a beautiful and magical place which was very evident in areas such as the Rust Garden, The Pill-Box Grotto, The Ornamental Courtyard, The Indian Pool Garden and Vesta's Grotto amongst others.

The afternoon was rounded off with a welcoming cup of tea and delicious cakes.

"Dipley Mill Gardens are one of the most beautiful gardens in Hampshire" according to Alan Titchmarsh., and I think we can all agree with that statement.
